A NEWSLETTER FOR OUR CHURCH FAMILY AND FRIENDS

A Word from the Pastor

"Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'"

Matthew 28:16-20 (NIV)

What is the Great Commission? Why is it so important for God's people? It is the last recorded instruction that Christ gave to His disciples before He ascended into heaven to sit at the right hand of Almighty God. But, more than that, it is a command given by Christ to all those who follow Him while they are on this earth throughout the generations. Jesus could have chosen anything He wanted to be His final instruction to His followers, yet He chose this Commission; and that fact is extremely significant, it shows the importance of this command. We, as followers of Jesus Christ, have been commanded by our Savior to get out of our comfort zones, go out into the world, and share the good news of the Gospel with everyone we meet.

THE GREAT COMMISSION

If you have been attending Sunday worship during this past month, you know that my sermon series on the Pastoral Epistles has heavily focused on what our responsibilities are as Christians, and we have no greater responsibility than the one given to us in Matthew 28. My prayer for this congregation as we start this new chapter of our ministry together, is that we be a congregation who takes these words from Jesus to heart; that we be a congregation who is not content to just show up and put in our hour every Sunday morning, but who lives out our faith on a day-to-day basis and shows our communities who Jesus is through how we act and interact with them. That we be witnesses of the saving work of Jesus Christ, and that we make disciples of our friends, family, neighbors, and co-workers.

Now, I am not saying that this will be an easy task; getting about the work of discipleship is a lot of hard work and can be very challenging, discouraging, and frustrating, especially in the 21st century. But Jesus didn't leave us with simply a command in the 28th chapter of Matthew, He also left us with a promise to encourage us. In verse 20, Christ says that He will always be with us, even to the end of the age. If Christ is with us, no amount of frustration or discouragement can stand in our way! If we have the Messiah, the Savior of the world, with us and on our side, there is no reason that we cannot boldly go out into our communities and tell them the wonderful news of our salvation; because we do not have to go out in our own strength or with our own boldness, but with the strength and boldness of the One who died so that we may live.

I am beyond excited to be serving as your pastor here at the Church of the 49ers; and I truly believe that God has great things in store for this church if we are able to put aside our fears, our worries, our concerns, and boldly follow Him as He leads us forward into the future. If we do that, there is no limit to the great things He can accomplish in and through our congregation. So let's walk forward together, putting all of our faith in Jesus to lead us where He would have us go!

In Christ,
Pastor Keith

On Thursday, August 22, 2019, Pastor Keith Reid will attend Presbytery for his Oral Examination. There will be two other men to take their exams. After that has been completed, Pastor Reid's Ordination can take place and he can add "reverend" to his name. The date will have to be coordinated with Presbytery, as they are involved in the service. An announcement will be made soon regarding the date and time. The service will most likely take place at the Church of the 49ers.

The FIRST Flourishing Next Steps Cohort will be held on September 10-11, 2019 at the Hilton Garden Inn, Sacramento. Pastors Keith Reid and Lee Warford will be attending along with other pastors in the Presbytery.

Save the date of Saturday, August 17, 2019 - it will be the baby shower for Travis Reid, at 11 am in Faith Hall.

Hootenanny!

Sunday 1:00 p.m.
September 29

The Church of the 49ers' version of a Hootenanny is a sing-along of favorite popular songs from the 50s-60s-70s led by professional musician Alex Kash and his wife Bethany in Faith Hall. Words to 35 familiar songs will be projected onto a screen so we don't have to sing from memory! To offset expenses, a free will offering will be taken.

Following worship on September 29, the Fellowship Committee will set out a simple lunch in Faith Hall for our parishioners to enjoy (donations encouraged). Then people in the community will join us at 1:00 p.m. for our third Hootenanny. We'll have a dance floor for those so inclined, and the intermission will feature popcorn and other refreshments. Mark your calendar and invite your family, friends and neighbors!

Want to help with the organization? Contact Leslie Davis.

Sermons and Scripture

Pastor Keith is preaching a series of sermons that will take a closer look at 1 and 2 Timothy as well as Titus to gain a deeper understanding of the letters that Paul wrote to these young pastors. Through these sermons, we will see many of the ways that God has commanded His church, both in the first century and today, to organize themselves and to worship Him.

The title of the series is "The Pastoral Epistles: God's Advice for His Church." The Scriptures and sermon titles for the month of August are:

August 4

1 Timothy 2:11-15
"Church in Culture"

August 11

1 Timothy 3:1-13
"What it Takes to Lead"

August 18

1 Timothy 3:14-16
"The Church of the Living God"

August 25

1 Timothy 3:1-5
"Thanksgiving in August"

YARD SALE OF BIBLICAL PROPORTIONS!

AUGUST 24, 8 AM - 3 PM (FREE ENTRY)

AND PREVIEW NIGHT

AUGUST 23, 6 - 8 PM ($5 ENTRY)

After promoting the Yard Sale of Biblical Proportions for months now, we are now down to the wire. The Church of the 49ers is hosting a giant yard sale and all in the congregation are encouraged to participate in this fundraiser. Half of the proceeds will be used for buildings and grounds maintenance, and the rest for mission projects of Presbyterian Women. Nora Neves is the person in charge.

Rooms in the Christian Education building are being filled with donations, and volunteers are needed beginning August 13th to clean and prepare the items for sale. If you haven't already, sign up with Nora for a slot to work on this all-church fundraiser. There are lots of options: you can help with preparing the merchandise for sale during the 2 weeks prior; or work the Preview Night on the 23rd, 6 to 8 pm; or work a shift during the Yard Sale day on the 24th. A Food Booth will be open for selling morning refreshments and BBQ lunches during the Yard Sale, to be operated by the men; and sweet and savory refreshments will be needed for our Preview Night shoppers.

A big help also is for everyone to actively publicize this event: tell your neighbors, friends, relatives about our Yard Sale of Biblical Proportions; send out mass emails (using blind copy, please). Leslie Davis will have posters/flyers available August 11th and welcomes help with posting them all over the county and beyond.

Tell your friends we call this every-three-years event a Yard Sale, though it will be inside AIR CONDITIONED Faith Hall. Articles for sale will include jewelry, household items, linens, wall art, lamps, heaters, sports equipment, tools, yard equipment, knick-knacks, books, some (small) furniture, etc. If you still have things to donate for the sale, note we can't take clothing, shoes or purses, or large furniture, and your donations need to be in saleable condition, not junk. And deliver to the church by August 13th, or call Nora to make arrangements for a pick up. Please advise if you would like a receipt for tax purposes. Other people may donate items also!

First Presbyterian Church of Columbia † "Church of the 49ers"

Welcome, New Members!

We gained four new members during two Inquirers' Classes conducted during Reverend Janet Russell's final month as pastor of the Church of the 49ers.

Pamela Austin grew up in the Baptist church and was born again at 30. She has two adult children. In May this year, Pamela began a 13-week-only assignment working as a mammography technician at Adventist Health in Sonora. Wanting to meet people during her time away from her family near Tacoma, Washington, Pamela began attending worship here and soon jumped in to help each week with serving meals on Monday evenings in Faith Hall. And though her time in Columbia was short, Pamela joined our church on June 8th. Pamela's husband, Bruce Cook, ordained as an ECO Presbyterian pastor, visited us also a couple of times. Now that Pamela's short-term job has ended in Sonora, they are vacationing on their drive home to the Pacific Northwest.

Steve Engle-Borda was raised in the Catholic church and baptized about age 13, but he has not been part of a church family for years. He decided to become a member here on June 8th following the Inquirers' Class. Steve was hired this spring as the church's sound technician - to make certain the microphones work and slide shows properly display for smoothly-run worship services. He has a 13-year-old daughter, Mariza, who helps out her dad in the sound booth occasionally. Steve has been attending classes at Columbia College and also is a sound technician for Sierra Repertory Theatre.

Diane Green joined our church on June 25th by Letter of Transfer from Graceway Church in Pleasanton (an ECO Presbyterian church in the SF East Bay). She has served as a deacon in the past, and is interested in joining a team of Sunday School teachers at the Church of the 49ers. Diane has three grown children.

Now retired, her interests include quilting, gardening, and restoring houses.

Mary Scialabba (pronounced shah-lábba) was raised Catholic and has been a member of the St. Patrick parish in Sonora for many years. Parking and making her way into St. Patrick's on that steep hill is a hardship for her now, so she decided to worship closer to her home in Columbia - and joined the Church of the 49ers on June 25th. Mary is the mother of three grown children and was married 50 years before her husband died suddenly.

Though Pamela has already gone back to her home in Washington State (we pray she will visit us sometime!), please make Steve, Diane and Mary feel welcome!

Ruth Grant

By Dick Dyer, Church Historian

Recently our church received a collection of historic photographs from the Wolverton family (grandchildren of Ruth Grant and proprietors of the Seven Sisters Soap & Candle Shop in Columbia). The family had been examining Ruth's historic mementos. Many of the photographs were taken about the time of the Great Fire of 1950 which destroyed the church sanctuary and manse as well as many original church records collected through the years by Pastor Joseph Hillhouse.

Ruth Schoettgen Grant was an unforgettable lady of faith—family, community, church, indeed a voice of remembrance. Undeniably she radiated an admirable personality during her lifetime residence in her beloved community. She was born in Columbia in 1903, one of Frank and Alice Schoettgen's six children. Ruth's grandfather, Frank, had arrived at Gold Rush Columbia from Germany by way of Chicago. Her grandmother, Evaline, was brought up in nearby Milton and also Columbia. Ruth's husband, Jack, helped develop the Grant family's limestone business at local quarries. On July 20, 1983, Ruth was called to her eternal reward—leaving over 200 relatives and a host of friends.

And in Ruth's early years? Her Mother Lode friends must have experienced bittersweet times in their mountain mining camps following the uproarious "time of forty-nine." We know that some of the original families continued to speak about the early Argonauts—robust, generous, law-abiding, a courageous lot and all remembering Columbia with its giant shade trees lining Main Street—positively a background for a modern life. Ruth reminisced that Columbia was "...a sight to behold, a complement to any artist's brush, God's masterpiece." However, as the years progressed, the First Presbyterian Church struggled to minister to their hospitable neighbors. Their time-honored togetherness and serenity changed with the disruption and hardship from the Great War in Europe and later the Great Depression in California. Notwithstanding their growing concerns, the arrival from Canada of Rev. Hugh J. Furneaux in 1914 as their pastor helped during their time of need. Pastor Furneaux was the honored "Shepherd of the Hills." He regularly conducted his ministry with the young encamped at their logging camp outposts in the rugged Sierra forests while accompanied by "Bag Pipe" and "Pipe Organ," his faithful donkeys. (Recall, our spiritual King also came as a minister riding a donkey.) It was during his ministry in Columbia that Rev. Furneaux decided to rename the historic church; it became the St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, and as such it remained for many years. (As it is today, but only for an elderly few).

During Ruth's student years, she attended Columbia's red two-storied schoolhouse on the hill near the present 49er Church. Philip Morgan was her teacher-principal until he moved to Sonora. Locally he was selected as Tuolumne County's Superintendent of Schools; shortly thereafter he was declared California's Dean of Superintendents. Ruth concluded her formal education at Sonora High School. As an adult, she proudly informed her Sunday School students that she and the High School were "born" in the same year—1903.

On October 25, 1975, Ruth was the distinguished speaker at a ground-breaking ceremony in Columbia State Historic Park in preparation to erect an old-fashioned bandstand. She reminded the audience that they were on hallowed ground at the historic mining camp. Columbia remains "...a beautiful and peaceful town with kind and loving people who make for happy memories."

While investigating our church resources, I listened to a cassette tape interview narrated June 29, 1983 by Rev. James McCluskey with Ruth Grant and

Ruth Grant - October 1975

Vada Carpenter. (Rev. McCluskey was pastor from April 1976 through October 1994.) It brought to mind that the 49er Church has had congregations of evangelists serving their Columbia neighbors many years after the gold discovery in 1850. It seems most of us enjoy reminiscing about the traditional virtues of fading eras. The ladies provided valuable information about their admired church—the historic bell, Youth Hut, Ramont Hall movies, Christmas celebrations, Calvin Crest summer camps, and other exciting events. As the informative interview continued, Pastor Jim asked the ladies to "...tell us about the ministry of women...." Ruth reminded listeners that "If it hadn't been for the women of the church,...we wouldn't have had an active church.... There have always been women...to help from the time I was a little girl." Vada described some of the popular events—Dorcas Society socials, holiday celebrations, Calaveras Big Trees picnics, Sabbath School worship and the women's conferences, near and far.

On November 29, 1979, at the 125th Anniversary celebration of the 49er Church, Ruth spoke about the six generations of her family who had attended the church. (We have her handwritten speech in the church archives). In her message she said, "I have a deep love and abiding faith for this church and all that it stands for." Understandably, she was first devoted to God, then her family. Additionally, she "worked hard to preserve the beauty of historic Columbia...." as well as the church as we know it today.

We extend to Ruth Grant our farewell, Rest in Peace. Now we close our review of those majestic early years. During recent years, ladies as emissaries of the faith, are rededicating the 49er Church's outreach activities to assist neighbors throughout the foothill communities. Truly it is gratifying to be reminded there will always be RUTH SCHOETTGEN GRANTS to volunteer, to assist in the growth of the church, and encourage others to offer the Good News to one and all.

"The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, our Lord. Blessed be the name of the Lord." This benediction was Ruth's conclusion in her 125th Anniversary reflections of the ministers and genesis of the early First Presbyterian Church of Columbia.

And now, you know THE REST OF Ruth's STORY. Amen.

Interfaith News

This month, I want to tell you about a couple of services that Interfaith offers that you may not be familiar with. One is our Wood Program for Interfaith clients: If you have received services earlier in the year, you can sign up August 1st through September 30th. The amount of firewood you receive will depend on what our supply is, usually one-half cord per family. If you know of someone who is eligible for this program, pass this information on.

The other service is our Legal Department which is open to all ages, you don't have to be a senior or even an Interfaith client. A retired attorney heads up this program and has several assistants. It is best if you have an appointment (call 694-3481) or you can just walk in, but you may have to wait. The hours are 8 am - 1 pm on Fridays at the Interfaith facility at 18500 Striker Court in Sonora.

Both of these services are without charge. If you want more information on either one of these, let me know, by phone or at church fellowship.

News from Allen Graham, Missionary

Dear Church of the 49ers family. Thank you for your prayers in July. Let me share with you how God answered.

Praises:

Thank God for another fruitful time of ministry by the Ecuador Summer Team from my sending church in Sacramento. Even though the team was small in numbers, God used it in some very big ways.

Praise God that the Spanish government granted the visas for my two new teammates in Spain. They are the first missionaries to come under the new organization established earlier this year. This was a very important step in the further development of our legal presence in Spain.

Response to our on-line Arabic radio ministry remains high, and around 4-8 Arabic speaking women are coming to Christ every month after contacting the follow-up team. Rejoice with us please!

Prayer requests:

Pray without ceasing for many believers in a number of creative access countries who are in prison because of their faith.

For physical, emotional and spiritual protection for new believers who are leaving the Muslim faith.

For preparation of materials to be presented in early September at a national Christian music conference in the United States. Pray that the financial needs for Reach Beyond's ministry in the North Africa/Middle East will be presented effectively.

I am honored to walk this journey with you. Thank you for being a key part in reaching the world for Christ.
